Blue Bird at IMPACT 15 Festival

Work in Progress

Blue Bird is in development by Blue Bird Theatre Collective at Inter Arts Matrix and lemonTree creations.

A father is riddled with guilt over the accidental death of his best friend. Twenty-five years later, upon his death, he sends his only son to Ghana to right his wrong and find the son of his late best friend. Through the collective effort of the characters both living (the sons) and spiritual (the fathers), a fable is formulated, destined to be passed on to other generations to incite change: the fable of the Blue Bird.
