INTER ARTS MATRIX (IAM) is a registered charitable arts organization based in the Region of Waterloo, Ontario. Founded in 2007, IAM is governed by a volunteer board of directors and employs an artistic director.

IAM also employs, on a contractual basis, artists of various disciplines, along with technical and administrative staff necessary to support the organization's mandate: "to educate and increase the public's understanding and appreciation of interdisciplinary art forms, to assist artists in developing interdisciplinary art and disseminating it to the public, and to provide programs promoting interdisciplinary art."

The Digital Video Editor (DVE) will work closely with the IAM Artistic Director (AD), the IAM Digital Projects Manager, and IAM's web designer to advance the mission of Inter Arts Matrix.

The DVE's primary focus will be the editing of over 60 lectures from IAM's X-Camera series. This will include but not be limited to short 'teaser' videos for promotional purposes and longer form videos for curators, researchers, artists and writers.

Skills required for the position:

- Knowledge of and facility with video and sound editing software is a must
- Knowledge and facility with digital broadcasting and online video channels
- Aptitude for creating aesthetic cohesion among IAM produced videos ie. aesthetic judgement and understanding of narrative flow, storytelling
- Ability to work independently
- Openness to dialogue with and feedback from colleagues and receptivity to make edits based on this dialogue
- Interest in interdisciplinary approaches to knowledge and artistic work
- Ability to embrace ambiguity and comfort with artistic and social experimentation

The Digital Video Editor will work in collaboration with the Artistic Director to advance this basic operating philosophy of Inter Arts Matrix.

To Apply:

Please prepare a single PDF with:

- a cover letter highlighting your relevant training, skills, past experience, and interest in the position (one-page maximum)
